CARBUNCLE WINS IN A GALLOP

TAKES WASHINGTON CUP AT TWO MILES AND A QUARTER.

Copover and Gasear Capture the Steeplechases-Totness, Locket and Scortle Win at Long Odds-Six Favorites Beaten at the Bennings Track-Entries.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.-A holiday crowd stended the races at Bennings to-day, where the attraction was a programme of seven races, cluding the Washington cup, at two miles and a quarter. R. T. Wilson, Jr.'s, Carbuncle was the favorite, although his price receded from 9 to 10 to even money, Sheriff Bell and Circus, last year's winner, coming in for ome heavy backing at the last moment. When the field got away Fuller took Sheriff Bell to the front, only to surrender the adcantage to Gaviota, who led to the last half bundle behind the leaders, meanwhile, but at this point he let the Stuyvesant gelding down, with the result that he quickly took by two lengths in 4:12 3-5. Rough Rider. the outsider in the betting, came very strong in the stretch and beat Circus by three lengths in front of Gaviota, who tired perceptibly

There were two steeplechase events. The first, run as the third race, was a renewal of the Chevy Chase, confined to gentlemen riders, and Conover, third choice, ridden by Mr. Hayes, won in a gallop by six lengths. The favorite, Imperialist, with Mr. Kerr in the saddle, fell, and so did R. B. Sack, Mr. Holloway up. Billy Ray, second choice had no trouble in taking the place from Red

The second jumping race, the fifth event on the card, was a handicap at about three miles. Woolgatherer was a hot tip and was do better than third. Manilian and Morrellton Chief took turns at making the pace until they reached the far turn last time around, where the former fell. Then it looked easy for Morrellton Chief until he began to tire when Gascar, 3 to 1, overhauled him in the last furiong and beat him a length in a sharp drive. The time was 6:25.

There were upsets in the first two races, in each of which there were sixteen starters. In the first, for maiden two-year-olds at five furlongs, H. M. Ziegler's Totness, who was backed from 40 to 1 to 20 to 1, won by a half a length under Wonderly's vigorous riding, with Niskayuna, 4 to 1, three parts of a length before Bronx, 20 to 1. Coppelia, the favorite, began slowly and had too much ground to make up when she reached the stretch. ton Chief took turns at making the pace until

GOOD SPEEDWAY SPORT. Edgar Bronk's Newcomer Precision a Fre-

Bright sunshine and delightful winter weather served to bring several thousand spectators to Speedway Park yesterday morning. High class harness horses were out, but the extreme cold had frozen the surface, and when the warm sun began to soften the soil it became sticky and slippery.

Edgar Bronk, the first vice-president of the New York Driving Club, who has been absent from the city many months on business, celebrated his return to the metropolis by bringing a new candidate for honors to the Speedway. This was his chestnut mare Precision, 2:10%, and she beat the topnotchers in racehorse fashion. John F. Cockerill, behind the trotter Swift, 2:07, and W. C. Floyd-Jones, with the trim little pacer Berdina, 2:08%, were the other starters. Owing to the slippery condition of the centre of the road each owner tried to get an outside route, but in the first brush Precision, at the cliff side, and Berdina, at the river side, left Mr Cockerill no choice but to take the centre.

The result was that when he saw he was beaten up near the end of the iron railing he took Swift in hand and accepted defeat. Mr. Floyd-Jones gave Swift the best footing Mr. Floyd-Jones gave Swift the best footing in the next brush and took his little pacer out in the mud. Precision had the former route and she again finished in front. As between the other two it was a splendid contest. Each owner worked with a will to help his horse and Berdina won over Swift. Over the lower stretch on the journey home the battle was renewed, Berdina made a break early and was out of it. Swift got away an open length to the good, but Precision closed on him and was only peaten a neck and shoulders in the final rally.

BIG PRICES AT HORSE SALE. C. K. G. Billings Pays 87,600 for Prince of Orange, 2:06 1-2.

Yesterday was expected to be the banner day of the Old Glory sale at Madison Square Garden and expectations were fully realized The top price of the day and it is safe to say of the entire sale was realized when Prince of Orange, 2:06%, had a new owner. C. K. G. Billings, through Vance Nuckals, paid $7,600 for the horse. C. W. Marks was a bidder up to $5,200.

The next highest price was paid for Tommy

Britton, 2:08½. John McGuire bid $2,000 and stayed in up to $3,500. W. J. Andrews acting, it is supposed, for William Simpson and William O'Neil of Lexington, Mass., acting for an Eastern breeder, carried the price along until O'Neil said $6,400. Andrews promptly said $7,000 and got the horse. The foreign delegation got Wainscot, 2:10%, at the third highest price of the day. The pacer, Don Riley, 2:07, was added to the Speedway brigade, Andrew Phillips getting CONSIGNMENT FROM HILLANDALE PARM

PENNSYLVANIA'S HOLLOW WIN

QUAKERS DEFFAT CORNELL BY SCORE OF 42 TO O.

One Sided Battle Before 17,000 Persons at Philadelphia-in the Second Half the Red and Blue Kickers Make Triumphal Processions to Ithacans' Goal.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 26 .- Pennsylvania closed her football season of 1903 to-day with a crushing defeat administered to Cornell and before a crowd of about 17,000 persons, The score was 42 to 0.

It was a regular Thanksgiving Day crowd that gathered at the field to witness the annual struggle between the Quakers and the Ithacans. It was not as large as usual, nor nearly as enthusiastic as in years past when the two teams battled with better reputations to sustain. But it was a football game that was a great deal more entertaining from a spectator's viewpoint than many a champlonship contest.
It was a splendid victory that Pennsylvania achieved and the defeat was a painful sur-prise to Cornell While the team is far from being the best turned out at Ithaca, it was considered good enough, especially after the Columbia game, to defeat the Quakers, who had been beaten three times this year. But Pennsylvania sustained the form she has shown during the whole year. Against teams that are not her equals she has played magnificent football, and with rushing plays that did not buck up against stonewalls she was invincible. In facing attacks that did not penetrate her line her defence was admirable. Thus did Pennsylvania play to-day.

Cornell could not hold the Red and Blue, and Cornell could not get through the Penn-sylvania line. Several times Rice, the fleet ooted back, got around the lines for runs footed back, got around the lines for runs of from twenty-five to forty-five yards, but never through the line. At no time did Cornen give the least evidence of scoring. The Pennsylvania goal was never in the slightest danger, while Pennsylvania was always pushing on toward the Ithacans' door. Penalties for holding and fumbles alone held Pennsylvania's score down to 42 points. It should have been 60.

The first half ended with the score 12 to 0. The Cornell people were left wondering what would come off in the next period. They remembered that Columbia had weakened in the latter part of the game with Cornell and that Cornell nearly won out. But Pennsylvania never weakens against Cornell. The Red and Blue team played even more fiercely than in the early part of the game. The Cornell line was completely crushed and shattered. Davitt, the centre, who had hurried on from Ithaca, where he has been ill, in order to play in his last game, had to retire from the game. Brewster, who a couple of years ago was an all American possibility, was removed from the field by the couches, his playing of the quarter back position not being up to form. Lynah, who took his place at once, steadied the team, but it was too late to accomplish anything, except check Pennsylvania's deadiy plays.

Pennsylvania, however, could not be stopped Her viciousness increased as the starch of the Cornell team dwindled until it was almost a procession to and from the Ithacan goal.

Curiosity to see the new links brought out an unusually large number of onlockers, and the clubhouse was crowded throughout the day. While the first tournament on the new grounds, it is really, through the merging of the Golf Club and the Country Club, the nineteenth semi-annual fixture under the same management. The grounds are just beyond the course of the new Pine Forest Golf Club and very picturesque, as well as being up to date for golfing.

The two river holes are the most interesting ever seen at Lakewood, where from the flat order of the grounds the holes are too often merely multiples of a full shot, with little variety. The two holes cost $8,000 with little variety. The two holes cost $8,000 to build up, as the greens had to be enclosed in a bulwark of stone. Going out the playing length is 2,635 and coming in 3,175 yards C. C. Mason had an odd card, the home holes showing an even run of fives. Four were tied for the last place in the first sixteen, a reproduction of the finish last spring. The tie will be played off at 9:30 o'clock this morning.
